250 kms of driving 5 kms of walking	Early morning, start driving to Baga Gazryn Chuluu, a sacred rocky mountain, 1760m above sea level, and is famous for its unique rock formations and beautiful natural environment. Trekking to the ruin of the meditation temple. O/n stay in ger (traditional dwelling).	B/L/D	GER
	DAY 4 – ANCIENT ROCK PAINTINGS
290 kms of driving 5 kms of walking	Drive to Tsagaan Suvarga, a cliff about 100 m long, formed from oceanic lime clay. From distance it looks like shrines and city structures, thus named White Shrines. Get to ger camp. After lunch, drive to Del Uul for the ancient rock paintings. O/n stay in ger.	B/L/D	GER
	DAY 5 – SOUTH GOBI
250 kms of driving 8 kms of walking	Drive to Eagle Valley, a deep and narrow gorge in the Gurvan Saikhan Mountains. The valley is named after the Mongol name of bearded vulture, Yoliin am. The area, as part of the Gobi Desert, sees little precipitation. However, Yolyn Am is notable for a deep ice field. The ice field reaches several meters thick by the end of winter, and is several kilometers long. In past years it remained year round, but the modern ice field tends to disappear by end July. Walking and lunch picnic in the beautiful valley. O/n stay in ger.	B/L/D	GER
	DAY 6 – SAND DUNE
180 kms of driving 5 kms of walking	Drive to Khongor Sand Dune, barren sand dune of extraordinary length of 180 kilometers and width reaches 3 to 15 kilometers. A charming oasis is formed at the northern edge of the sand dunes. It is very refreshing to see in the Gobi desert tall grasses, flowers and the oasis along the Khongor Spring. Climb up to the sand dune. Visit camel breeding family to get interesting details of nomadic life. O/n stay in ger.	B/L/D	GER
	DAY 7 – GOBI AND DINOSAUR FOSSILS
150 kms of driving 4 kms of walking	Drive to Bayanzag, the cradle of dinosaur fossils. The area is most famous for yielding the first discovery of dinosaur eggs. Other finds in the area include specimens of Velociraptor. The rock gives off a glowing orange color, hence the nickname. After lunch walk to Flaming Cliffs O/n stay in ger.	B/L/D	GER
	DAY 8 – ONGI TEMPLE
170 kms of driving 4 kms of walking	Drive to Ongi Temple, arrival at the ger camp and have lunch. In the afternoon, visit Ongi Temple. Formerly one of the largest monasteries in Mongolia, Ongi Temple was founded in 1760 and combined two temple complexes on the north and south sides of the Ongi River. The older southern side consisted of various administrative buildings which were linked to the northern side by a bridge over the river which has long since disappeared but you can still see the base foundations of it. It used to have around 1000 monks bustling about	B/L/D	GER

As the whole monastery was destroyed by Stalin's cronies in the 1930's and 200 monks were killed and many more imprisoned or forced to join the Communist army. Other monks escaped certain death by becoming farmers and common workers. The temple was then simply left to decay further. However, after the end of Communism in 1990, 3 monks returned where they had begun their Buddhist education as young children some 60 years prior. Slowly, these monks started laying new foundations upon old ruins with a vision of restoring the temple. O/n stay in ger. However, after the end of Communism in 1990, 3 monks returned where they had begun their Buddhist education as young children some 60 years prior. Slowly, these monks started laying new foundations upon old ruins with a vision of restoring the temple. O/n stay in ger. PAY 9 - KARAKORUM Continue driving to Kharakorum. Enroute stop at Shankh Hild, one of the oldest temples of Mongolia. Visit the Kharakhorum museum, new museum that was opened last year and displaying unique findings that explored by German-Mongolian expedition from Kharakorum sight. O/n stay in ger-camp. PAY 10 - CROSSROAD OF DIFFERENT NATURAL ZONES In the morning, visit Erdene Zuu Monastery surrounded by an impressive wall with 108 white stupas. Of more than 60 buildings only 18 were not destroyed during the Cultural Revolution in the 1930's. The monastery still has an impressive collection of books, statues and religious masks that have been hidden in the nearby mountains during the communist era. Visit Buddhist ceremony held in the main prayer hall. Visit horse breeding family. Optional horse riding. Drive to Bayangobi, where Gobi, rocky mountains and steppes border and mix. Arrival at ger-camp and have lunch. Start short trip to Khugnu Khan Mountain to visit Oygonii temple. Then proceed to Khugnu Tarni Sand dune and beautiful small lake. Get back to the ger camp. ATTEND NAADAM FESTIVAL IN KHARAKORUM DAY 11 - HUSTAI Start driving to Hustain Nurruu Natural Preserve. This mountain is in Altanbulag county in Central province and the distance is 105 kms from Ulaanbaatar. The mountain has an elevation is 1,842 meters above sea level. The Natural Preserve covers 900 square kms and has been protected since 1993 to conserve biodiviersity and facilitate the re-introduction to the wild of Takhi, Przewalski's Wild Horse.
